1.4 KEYS, END OF LEASE TERM. Landlord shall give the keys to Tenant at the start of the Term only if all Rent/Deposits payments have been made by Tenant as promised and all required documentation is provided. The Premises shall not be deemed vacated until Tenant returns all the Keys to Landlord and the last occupant has vacated. If there is more than one Tenant, this means that all keys from all occupants must be returned.

1.5 NO EARLY ACCESS OR STAYING BEYOND THE END OF THE LEASE. Tenant shall not be allowed to move in before the start of the Term, or to hold over (stay in possession) after the end of the Term. Landlord shall be entitled to additional rent if the Tenant holds over after the end of the Term.

1.6 NO RIGHT TO TERMINATE. After signing this Lease, Tenant shall have no right to terminate this Lease for any reason. Landlord shall be entitled to full payment of Rent if termination is attempted.

1.7 WAIVER OF RENEWAL: As per Chapter 258-10(A) of the City of Ithaca City Code, landlords shall provide a minimum 120 days' written notice to current tenants of a residential unit before doing any of the following: Renewing the current rental agreement, showing the residential unit to prospective new tenants, or otherwise suggesting to prospective new tenants that the unit is available for rent, or entering into a rental agreement with new tenants. Ithaca Renting Company reserves the right to offer to renew the current rental agreement, show the residential unit to prospective new tenants, or enter into a rental agreement with new tenants at its own discretion.

_____ (Tenant Initials Here) By initialing here, Tenant understands and willingly waives their rights to 120 days' written notice in advance of the above.

1.8 DEFAULT. Upon default by Tenant in the payment of any installment of rent, abandonment by Tenant of the property, or upon default in the performance of any covenant, term, condition, the Landlord may commence eviction proceedings, as follows:

(i) Landlord will send a seven (7) day notice to cure, identifying the behavior that is in violation of the Lease, that it is objectionable, and that said default must cease and be corrected;

(ii) If the Tenant fails to cure and/or continues the objectionable conduct (including non-payment of rent) after the notice to cure period has expired, the Landlord will send a three (3) day notice terminating the tenancy;

(iii) If the Tenant fails to vacate the premises after three (3) days, the Landlord will initiate a summary eviction proceeding against the Tenant. In the event there is a dispute between the parties of this Lease, any legal action shall be instituted in the Courts of the State of New York, Tompkins County, and not elsewhere. Tenant hereby waives any right to a jury trial.

ARTICLE 2: RENT, DAMAGE DEPOSIT, GUARANTEE OF PAYMENT

2.1 RENT. Tenant agrees to pay annual Rent for the Premises in the amount of Monthly Rent x 12. Under no circumstances shall the Tenant attempt to set off against the Rent, or make a partial payment of the Rent. For the convenience of the Tenant, Landlord agrees to accept the annual Rent in installments, as follows:

A. (1 month rent) due on or before the first day of the month in which occupancy will commence. No keys will be delivered to any Tenant before the payment of the first month of rent.

B. Monthly Installments of (1 month rent) are due by the 1st day of each month, beginning (second month of lease) through (final month of lease).

2.2 DAMAGE DEPOSIT. In addition to the Rent to be paid, Tenant agrees to also pay in a separate check the amount of (1 month rent) at the time the lease is signed as security against any damages sustained to the apartment or the common areas of the building because of the Tenant's actions. This damage deposit is in addition to the installment in 2.1 (A), above, and is to protect against any damages to the Premises, or for repairs, cleaning or other items due to any action or inaction by the Tenant. In the event that the tenant fails to take possession of the premises, the security deposit shall become rent and is non-refundable as liquidated damages for Tenant(s) breach of this lease. If the tenant defaults in the payment of rent, or violates the terms of the lease agreement, the security deposit or any unused portion of it shall be applied toward the amount owed by the tenant to the landlord. Nothing stated herein shall restrict the landlord from pursuing any other available remedy permitted by law.

2.2.1 The Damage Deposit, less any deductions, will be returned by mail to the address given by the Tenant to the Landlord, or to the information on the RIF if no other address is given, within 14 days after the last occupant has vacated.

2.2.2 The Damage Deposit will be maintained by the Landlord in a designated account at either M&T Bank (Fane Enterprise Tenants) or Tompkins Community Bank (all other Tenants) in an interest bearing account. The Tenant will receive the interest paid by the bank after deductions, less 1% administrative charge the Landlord will keep for administration.

2.2.3 Any deductions by the Landlord from the Damage Deposit, no matter by whom caused or regardless of any agreements between the individuals signing this lease, will be divided equally between the signers.

2.2.4 In the event an individual signer extends a lease term, and damage charges were assessed to the previous lease, that individual occupant must pay an additional amount sufficient to bring the Damage Deposit back to the original level in 2.2 above, before the start of the next term.

2.2.5 The parties agree that any damages, repairs, replacements, banking charges and/or cleaning charges shall be valued based upon the Landlord's Flat Rate Damage schedule in the booklet named "Ithaca Renting Company: Landlord's Rules for Tenants", which is made a part of this Lease. Tenant acknowledges that the receipt of the electronic version of the Landlord's Rules for Tenants, that the Tenant has reviewed it, and that deductions from the Damage Deposit are reasonable and will be based upon these schedules/rules.

2.3 GUARANTY AND REFERENCES. As a condition to the Landlord's agreeing to rent to Tenant, each signer who is a currently enrolled full-time college student and/ or under the age of 21 must deliver to the Landlord a Guaranty on the form provided by the Landlord, signed by that Tenant's parent or guardian, agreeing to guarantee the full payment to Landlord of all of Tenant's obligations under this Lease. All other Tenants must submit rental and employment references as requested by Landlord.

2.4 NO PARTIAL PAYMENT. Landlord may, but is not required to, accept any partial payment by a signer/Tenant. If Tenant makes any payment of Rent in an amount less than then due, Landlord may accept it, but Tenant shall not be relieved of his/her default to make full payment, nor shall acceptance constitute a waiver by Landlord of his rights to full payment.

2.5 LATE FEES/ADMINISTRATIVE AND BOOKKEEPING FEES. If Tenant fails to make any payment to the Landlord within five (5) days of the due date, Landlord may collect an Administration and Bookkeeping fee of FIVE (5%) PERCENT of the payment due to the Landlord, but no greater than $50.00. Such charge is due and payable as additional rent when billed by the Landlord. In the event of a returned check, there shall be a fee of $35.00 per check due to the Landlord by Tenant.

ARTICLE 3: UTILITIES, RENTERS INSURANCE, SECURITY, ETC.

3.1 UTILITIES PAID FOR BY TENANT. The Tenant is responsible to pay for the electric utility, which is separately metered. Tenant is also responsible for internet, cable and telephone service. The Tenant will put all individually metered utilities affecting the Premises in his/her/their name prior to taking occupancy. Tenant is solely responsible for the payment of these individually metered utility expenses/services.

- 3.2 LANDLORD SERVICES PROVIDED. The Landlord agrees to provide at his own expense heat, water and sewer services, basic building maintenance and payment of property taxes. Landlord's only obligations to the Tenant are those specifically assumed by the Landlord as set forth in the Lease. Vehicles improperly parked shall be towed at the owner's expense.
- 3.4 INTERRUPTION OF SERVICES, ETC. The Landlord shall not be liable to Tenant for any loss, expense, or damage that Tenant may sustain in the event of a change, failure, interference, disruption, interruption, or defect in the delivery of any utility and/or service furnished to the premises by the landlord or a third party supplier, regardless of the duration or cause, unless caused by the Landlord's intentional deliberate action.
- 3.5 RIGHT TO REPAIR SERVICES. The Landlord has the right to interrupt service of any utility and/or service provided to Tenant when reasonably necessary because of an accident, emergency, repair, alteration or improvement, when required to do so by order of civil authority, or for any other reason beyond the control of the Landlord, without liability for damage thereof. Except for emergency, the Landlord shall attempt to give reasonable notice before stopping utility service. If any repair, maintenance or construction undertaken by the Landlord shall cause noise, vibration, dust or other inconvenience to the Tenant, the same shall not constitute a constructive eviction of the Tenant(s) or be the basis for any claim against the Landlord, provided the Landlord shall take, or have taken reasonable steps to minimize any disturbance by the Tenant.
- 3.6 TENANTS RESPONSIBLE FOR THEIR OWN SECURITY. It is the responsibility of the Tenant to take reasonable precautions for their own security and safety, including keeping the entrance door and apartment doors locked, and not allowing entry into the building and/or apartment unknown persons.
- The Landlord makes no representation or warranty to the Tenant regarding the safety or security of the Tenant, guests or visitors to the Tenant. Landlord shall not be responsible for any property damage, personal injury (including death or dismemberment) alleged to have been caused by any act or omission of the Landlord. No safety or security benefit is expressed, implied or conveyed by the Landlord to the Tenant.
- Buzzer systems, intercoms, entrance staff, closed circuit television and recorders and building security hardware, if provided by the Landlord, are offered only as a gratuitous service for the Tenant.
- 3.7 TENANTS RESPONSIBLE FOR THEIR OWN INSURANCE. Landlord's insurance policy does not cover any property losses by the Tenant, or the personal property of the Tenant. It is the responsibility of the Tenant to obtain renter's insurance to cover loss of their personal property.

Guests are permitted only if the presence of a guest is not objected to by other occupants of the unit/signers of this Lease.
- 4.2 INSPECTION OF THE PREMISES. The Tenant agrees to thoroughly examine the Premises at the time of taking occupancy. The Tenant shall promptly deliver to the Landlord the Move-in Inspection Form, noting thereon any objection to any condition of the Premises. If the Move-in Inspection Form is not returned to Landlord within five (5) days of taking occupancy, the Tenant agrees that the condition of the Premises is deemed to be in good order and repair, without objection or defect. Tenant may request a joint inspection with Landlord before vacating the Premises. Tenant shall notify Landlord not less than 30 days before the last individual vacates. This inspection will inform Tenant, to the greatest extent then available, of deficiencies in the condition of the Premises so that Tenant may remedy the deficiency. After the last individual occupant has vacated, Landlord will conduct a post-vacation inspection and provide results to the Tenant.
- 4.3 INDEMNIFICATION OF LANDLORD. Landlord shall not be responsible for damages and/or injuries to the Tenant, or to any party permitted to enter onto the Premises by the Tenant or guests of the Tenant.
